

Jeremy M. Schwartz

Curriculum Vitae

September 2018

Department of Philosophy
Texas Tech University
College of Arts and Sciences
Lubbock, TX 79409-3092

3020 22nd Street
Lubbock, TX 79410
Email: jeremy.m.schwartz@ttu.edu
Phone: 806-834-7347

Employment History

Assistant Professor, Texas Tech University, Department of Philosophy, 2014-present.
Visiting Assistant Professor, Texas Tech University, Department of Philosophy, Winter 2009- 2014.
Lecturer, European College of Liberal Arts, Winter 2008.
Instructor, University of Chicago, Spring 2001, Fall 2004, Winter 2006, Fall 2006.

Education

University of Chicago, Ph.D. from The Committee on Social Thought, December 2007.
Dissertation: Connecting Agency and Morality in Kant's Moral Theory.
Committee: Robert Pippin (chair), Sebastian Rödl, Daniel Brudney.
University of Chicago, B.A. in Fundamentals, Issues and Texts (with honors), 1993.
University of Chicago, B.A. (requirements completed) Mathematics, 1993.

Areas of Specialization

Ethics, Kant, Metaethics

Areas of Competence

Ancient Philosophy, Applied Ethics

Publications

- "The Form of Hypothetical Imperatives," Nature and Freedom—Proceedings of the 12th International Kant Congress, forthcoming.
"Towards a Semantics for Metanormative Constructivism" (with Joel Velasco). Philosophical Studies (2018, online first).
"Was Kant a Kantian Constructivist?" Kantian Review, June 2017
"Integrity: The Virtue of Compromise," Palgrave Communications, Nov 2016.
"Why the Negation Problem is not a Problem for Expressivists," (with Christopher Hom), Nous, 2015.
"Unity and the Frege-Geach Problem," (with Christopher Hom), Philosophical Studies, 2013.
"Do Hypothetical Imperatives Require Categorical Imperatives?" European Journal of Philosophy, 2010.

Works in Progress

- “Piety as Its Own Virtue: An Aristotelian Approach,” (with David Hayes)
- “What are rational requirements?” (with Joel Velasco)
- “A Kantian Account of Gratitude”
- “Putting Emotions in their Place” (with Krista Thomason)
- “Hare’s Solution to the Frege-Geach problem” (with Chris Hom)

Conferences and Invited Talks

- “The Role of Cultivating Sympathy in Kantian Virtue,” with Krista Thomason Midwest APA, Feb 2018.
- “Solving the Frege-Geach Problem for Expressivists” with Christopher Hom, Force, Content, and the Unity of the Proposition, Vienna, April 2017
- “Symposium: Teleology and Reason,” Midwest APA, Mar 2017.
- “Putting Emotions in their Place,” with Krista Thomason Tennessee Values and Agency Conference, Knoxville, Tennessee September 2016.
- “The Form of Hypothetical Imperatives” International Kant Congress, Vienna, September 2015.
- “The Hypothetical Imperative as a Rule of Practical Inference,” St Louis Annual Conference on Reasons and Rationality (SLACRR), June 2015.
- “Piety, the Forgotten Virtue,” with David Hayes, Bard College Faculty Speaker Series, Bard in Berlin, March 2015.
- “Hare’s Solution to the Unity of the Proposition Problem,” Texas Tech Conference on Propositions, November 2014
- “Psychological Egoism and Excuses,” Amerisphere, July 2013.
- “What the Frege-Geach Problem is Not,” with Christopher Hom, Texas Tech University, Lubbock Texas, April 2013.
- “Research Ethics in the Humanities,” Responsible Conduct of Research Conference, Texas Tech University, April 2012.
- “Unity and the Frege-Geach Problem,” with Christopher Hom, Pacific APA, Seattle, Washington, April 2012.
- “Unity and the Frege-Geach Problem,” with Christopher Hom, Texas Tech University, Lubbock Texas, October 15, 2011.
- Participant, TRE (Teaching Research Ethics) workshop hosted by The Poynter Center for the Study of Ethics and American Institutions, Bloomington, Indiana, May 2011.
- “Comments on LeBar’s ‘Should Constructivists be Particularists,’” Northwestern University Society for Ethical Theory and Political Philosophy, Evanston, Illinois, May 2010.
- “Piety as Gratitude in Plato’s Euthyphro,” Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas, April 2010.
- “Practical Analytic Judgments,” Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas, February 2009.
- “Three Proposals for Reading Section 2 of Groundwork III,” North American Kant Society, Midwest Study Group, Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana, October 2008.
- “Practical Analytic Judgments,” Alabama Philosophical Society, Orange Beach, Alabama, September 2008.
- “Kant’s Groundwork for the Metaphysics of Morals,” invited talk at European College of Liberal Arts, Berlin, May 2006.

- “Unity and Disunity in Kant’s first two Critiques,” Graduate Student Philosophy Conference on Ethics and Epistemology, New School for Social Research, New York, March 2004.
- “‘The Fact of Reason’ and Complex Numbers,” Committee on Social Thought Colloquium, University of Chicago, Chicago, April 2004.

Departmental Service

Master’s Thesis Committee Member, Texas Tech:

- Logan Morton (chair), Summer 2018: “Singer, Act-Utilitarianism, and Self-Defeat”
- Daniel Payne, Spring 2018: “Nietzsche and the Virtue of Self-Knowledge”
- Joshua de Bonilla, Summer 2017: “Holding the Line: Plato on Education, Virtue and Language.”
- Jose-Miguel Rosillo-Cevallos, Spring 2017: “Amending Agent-Based Virtue Ethics.”
- Daniel Moss (chair), Spring 2017: “With All Our Powers: A Defense of A Robust Account of Kantian Beneficence.”
- Kevin Banks, Spring 2016: “Optimizing Moral Character: A Virtue Ethics Training Framework for Achieving Moral Readiness in the United States Army.”
- Sahar Heydari-Fard (chair), Spring 2015: “Hybrid Expressivism and Speech Act Theories.”
- Joshua Tignor (chair), Spring 2015: “Kantian Nonconceptualism, Priority to Thought, and Intuition.”
- Xiang Yu (chair), Spring 2015: “Challenges from the Shmagent.”
- Andrew Christman (chair), Spring 2015: “The Origin of Empirical Concepts in Kant and the Specificity of Experience”
- Brian Spreng, Fall 2014: “Can the No Miracles Argument Work for Moral Realism?”
- Brian Kested (chair), Spring 2014 “Trial and Hare: An Exploration of the Experimental.”
- Nathan Hoofard (chair), Spring 2014: “Can Morality be Grounded in God: A Defense of Divine Grounded Ethics.”
- Andrew Smith, Spring 2014: “Leibniz on Personal Identity and Desire.”
- Robert Reed, Spring 2012: “A Place for Moral Theory in the Argument from Evil.”
- Justin Morton (chair), Spring 2012: “Why the Humean Theory of Motivation is False.”
- Eric Sampson, Spring 2012: “Moral Supervenience.”
- Daniel Osusky, Spring 2012: “Error Theory without Error.”
- Thomas Reynolds, Spring 2010: “Expressive Meaning and Truth Conditions.”

Faculty Mentor, Texas Tech:

- Douglas Westfall 2014-2015
- Bailey Szustak Spring 2015
- Brian Spreng 2013-2014

Mentored all students teaching “Introduction to Ethics,” 2009-2010.

Hiring Committee Member, Texas Tech 2016, 2017

Speaker Committee Member, Texas Tech, 2009-2011, 2104-15, 2017-2018

Scholarship Committee Member, Texas Tech, 2104-2015

Ethics Advisory Committee Member, Texas Tech.

Co-founder (with Walter Schaller), “Teaching and Talking” lecture series, 2011-present.

Professional Service

Ad Hoc Reviewer, Kantian Review, Synthese, Erkenntnis, Southern Journal of Philosophy, Journal of Social Philosophy, Journal of Philosophical Research, Philosophical Papers.

Courses Taught

Philosophy and Literature: Jane Austen and Ethics, Spring 2014.
Seminar: Great Figures in Philosophy: Sidgwick and other Utilitarians (graduate-level philosophy class), Texas Tech, Spring 2011, Fall 2012.
Seminar: Topics in Metaethics, Fall 2014, Spring 2017
Seminar: Kant's Ethics (graduate-level philosophy class), Texas Tech, Spring 2010, Fall 2011, Fall 2016.
Introduction to Research Ethics (graduate-level course offered to students in the physical sciences), Fall 2012, Spring 2013, Fall 2013, Fall 2015, Fall 2016.
Ethics (senior-level philosophy class), Texas Tech, Fall 2009, Spring 2009, Spring 2012, Spring 2013
Introduction to Ethics (freshman-level philosophy class), Texas Tech, Fall 2009, Spring 2009, Spring 2010, Fall 2010, Spring 2011, Fall 2011, Spring 2012, Fall 2012, Spring 2013, Fall 2013, Spring 2014, Fall 2014, Spring 2015, Fall 2015, Fall 2016, Spring 2017.
Great Figures in Philosophy: Kant's Critique of Pure Reason (senior-level philosophy class and grad-level philosophy class), Texas Tech, Spring 2009, Fall 2010, Fall 2013, Spring 2014.
Moral Objectivity and Moral Subjectivity, European College of Liberal Arts, Winter 2008.
Human Being and Citizen (freshman humanities core), University of Chicago, Fall 2006, Winter 2006, Fall 2004, Spring 2001.
Ethics, Johns Hopkins University Center for Talented Youth, (The Center for Talented Youth introduces highly motivated high school students to college-level material), Summer 2003, Summer 2002.
Logic: Principles of Reasoning, (college-level logic class up to and including proofs in first-order predicate calculus), Johns Hopkins University Center for Talented Youth, Summer 2001, Summer 2000.

Courses Assisted

Classics of Social and Political Thought, University of Chicago, Fall 1999, Winter 2000.

Languages

Speaking and writing knowledge of German.

References:

Robert Pippin, Professor, Committee on Social Thought and Department of Philosophy, University of Chicago.
Sebastian Rödl, Professor, Department of Philosophy, University of Basel.
Daniel Brudney, Professor, Department of Philosophy, University of Chicago.
Christopher Hom, Assistant Professor, Department of Philosophy, Texas Tech University.

